VOL. XVIII, No. 4. EIGHTEENTH YEAR GLOUCESTER, MASS., JULY 25, 1914. PRICE FIVE CENTS

The Annisquam Region

HARRY A. Duane, a summer resident, who is much interested in yachting, especially in the Cat class, has repeated his donation of last year, having contributed three cups which will be awarded the winners in order in a series of five Sunday races in the "Cat" class. The first race was held last Sunday, the Caterpillar winning first.

The Caterpillar is a new entrant. Although put overboard the same time last spring as the rest of the class she never has been raced. Recently, her owner, Mrs. R. Russel Smith, who has a cottage at Thurston's point, resolved to get into the game, so the Caterpillar made her debut Sunday, leading the field by a handsome margin.

Harold Davis, whose timely assistance prevented the drowning of the governess, Jeanne Armand and the little girls, Helen Swan and Helen Lundgren, has been presented with $100 from each, Mrs. Swan and Mrs. Lundgren. That from Mrs. Lundgren, by whom Miss Armand is employed, has been deposited in a bank for the benefit of Mr. Davis' little son. That from Mrs. Swan was given outright and the two ladies together presented him with a handsome traveling clock. Miss Armand has presented Mr. Davis with a gold watch.

The tea at the Annisquam Yacht Club House Saturday afternoon was held from 4.30 to 6 o'clock. Mrs. John P. Bartlett and Mrs. Harry B. Duane officiated. At the dance in the evening, which was largely attended, Mrs. William M. Jelly and Mrs. Augustus P. Thompson were the matrons.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nutting and Mrs. Richards of Winthrop, are in Annisquam in the yacht Ruth and have apartments in the village.

Mrs. Annie Webster of Boston, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Norwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rawson have been on an automobile trip to Montreal and returned through the White Mountains.

Arrivals at Overlook: Miss E. S. Bigelow, St. Augustine, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Murray, Miss J. Murray, Brooklyn; Mrs. Lewis E. Tifft, nurse and daughter, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. George A. Swalin and daughter, Middletown, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Raymond and family, Sewickley, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. T. Mosman and daughter, Winchester.

Mrs. Amanda Hawkes of Wingaersheek, entertained a few friends at the Barnacle in honor of her guests, Mr. and Mrs. Winslow Warner of Cleveland.

Monday, a lively launch party of young people from the Rockaway, East Gloucester, to Squam, landed at Hodgkins Wharf, and greatly added to their good time by refreshments at the Barnacle.

The following day Mrs. William Locke of Los Angeles, entertained several friends at a lobster party.

Mrs. E. C. Ripley, Commonwealth avenue, Boston, was hostess to a few friends on Wednesday at the well known Barnacle Tea Room.

East Gloucester

MID summer finds the hotel accommodations here being rapidly filled. Another week and the capacity mark will be approached.

Ross Turner, the Salem artist, is stopping at the "Inner Harbor," Rocky Neck.

The John Bowler family of High Cliff Lodge, Grape Vine Cove, have as their guests Mrs. W. T. Wanamaker of New York and Miss Mildred Bowler of Amsterdam.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O. Procter, Jr. of Boston, have as guests at their Bass Rocks cottage, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hyde of Greenwich, Conn., J. Durand of England, and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Fraser of New York.

The Rockport Shore

THE golf links were laid out during the week by Harry Dutton, George W. Harvey and an expert golfer of Boston, who pronounced the course a most excellent one. Work will be commenced at once laying out a nine hole course which will be increased to a full sized 18 hole course next year. The club house will be erected on a sightly eminence and when completed it is confidently expected that it will be one of the very best assets in boosting Rockport as a summer resort, supplying a need which has long been apparent, at once as a golfing headquarters for this section and the club house as a social rallying center for the Rockport shore. WITH the approach of August and the let up in the fog, which has been a daily diet for the past month, the season is taking on more life and gayety. Still it has undeniably been dull thus far. The shop keepers along the row complain of poor business. There have been no reports of sales of $15,000 pearl necklaces thus far in the day. This is evidently not the "spending" year.

The swimming pool and the golf links comprise the chief diversions. A band concert is scheduled at the pool every two weeks, the next one for the coming Thursday night.

The Grill, it is said, has picked up quite a bit in patronage this season and has quite recovered from the black eye administered under former auspices. The Green Gables also is repeating its success of last year.

At the Oceanside tonight the house count approaches 500 and August 1 will see the hotel registration at its limit.

Dwight Atherton has gone on a visit to friends in Seabright, N. J.

Mrs. Frederick Atherton of Washington, is the guest of Mrs. William Atherton of Boston, at the Oaks cottage.

Mrs. F. M. K. Rehn, who went on to Philadelphia to attend the interment services of her husband has, with her son, returned to her residence, The Sea Reaches, for the rest of the season. Her niece, Miss Bessie Hunting, of New York, is with her.

Dr. and Mrs. Gordon Morrill of Cleveland, have been the guests of H. H. Stevens of Boston, at their Summer street residence, during the week.

Miss Elsie Page of Brookline, has been the guest of Miss Katharine Coolidge, at Blynman farm.

Mrs. G. H. Watson, Jr. of Morristown, N. J, has been the guest of Mrs. Eugene Foster, at Coolidge point.

Mrs. John Rensmaniere has been the guest of Mrs. Richard Frothingham, during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Morgan of Philadelphia, motored this week to Bretton Woods, to escape the prevailing fogs.

Master Richard Grower of Allston, is the guest of his aunt, Dr. Mary D. Dakin, at her Fuller street cottage.

Mrs. T. W. Fisher of Brookline, an Oceanside guest, chaperoned a deep sea fishing party given by her son, Master Patterson Fisher, to a number of his boy friends in the summer colony, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Hunt of Reading and niece, Miss Rae, are touring the North Shore and will make a two weeks stay at The Moorland.

Miss Eva Clarke of Boston, has been the guest of her cousins, the Misses Lilian and Cora Clarke, at their residence, Coolidge point. The Misses Clarke are the daughters of the late Rev. Dr. James Freeman Clarke, one of the pioneer summer settlers of this section.

Miss Helen Drake of Chicago, who has been the guest of Mrs. Harry B. Farnham at Sun Dial cottage for the past month, returned to Chicago last week.

TO ADVERTISERS

The CAPE ANN SHORE, now in its eighteenth consecutive season, is the only summer resort publication on Cape Ann. It reaches every section of the cape, and is the only means of communication of the kind between the merchants and the summer residents. Therefore its value as an advertising medium is self-evident. It contains each week a full and complete account of the social happenings of the summer resort section. It occupies a place by itself in the advertising field, reaching the most profitable customers along the North Shore. Advertisers should remember these facts.

On With The "Tay Dongsong"

The [illegible] Dansant seems to be the principal diversion [illegible]. It is an unpretentious hostelry [illegible] tea room that does not have in its personnel two or more young women "direct from the Castle House" who instruct old and young alike in this erotic dancing. The latest is "esthetic" dancing in which mosquito netting serves as drapery for the body. This was some stunt when a Russian countess, so called, put it across, barefooted, at the Grill, Magnolia, some five years ago. Then it was a novelty and made 'em sit up and gasp. Now, but why characterize? Relative to the negroid dancing which goes under the name of the one-step, etc., the principal figure in "The Goldfish" describes the fad as the effort of gray haired men in pushing about a hall 250 pound women. Puck has it right. "Lord, What Fools These Mortals Be."

Miss M. A. Campbell of Hagerstown, Md., and Anna M. Shapley Troth and Master E. P. Troth, are among the guests at the Harbor View.

W. H. Thomas and Misses Na and E. W. Thomas of Morristown, N. J., have arrived at the Harbor View for an extended stay.

W. W. Young, a former newspaper man, is making a short stay at the Harbor View. Some years ago Mr. Young spent his vacation here. He is now engaged in directing the making of moving picture films and at present a six reel presentation of "Alice in Wonderland." A part of the action is near the seashore. Recalling the scenery of this place, Mr. Young brought on his company and accessories, and Wednesday, at Brace cove and Briar neck, the scene desired was made. The day was all that could be desired for the purpose.

Good Harbor Beach Inn

The Store with the Sidewalk Clock

East Gloucester

The Hawthorne Inn is fast filling to its limit and among the week's accessions are noted many former guests.

Many informal and formal parties are the order of the day among the guests. Those who have entertained during the week include Mrs. Jordan Stabler of Baltimore, Mrs. William K. Harcourt and Admiral and Mrs Marix of New York. A very pleasant occurrence was the birthday party, Sunday evening, planned in honor of Louis V. D. DeFoe, dramatic critic of the New York World, a large party assembling. The regular hops given by the management to the guests are Wednesday and Saturday nights and are well attended. The week's registrations follow:

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Adams, Jr., Albany; Miss Boyd, Philadelphia; Miss Berge, New York; Mrs. Thomas Brausford, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Baxter, Grand Rapids; Miss Curtis, New York; Miss E. A. Crandall, Brooklyn; Mrs. Cuyler E. Carr, Cooperstown, N. J.; Miss Page Carter; John E. Crew, Cleveland; Robert Christie, Jr., New Britain, Conn.; John L. Christie, Montclair, N. J.; E. C. Church, Sharon; Mr. and Mrs. James S. Coale, Philadelphia; W. E. Clarke, Chicago; Mrs. H. B. Coburn, Miss Harriet Coburn, Lowell; Albert Dodge, Philadelphia; R. Flanders, Hanover, N. H.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Ferguson, Buffalo; F. E. Fennessey, Jr., Brookline; Mrs. T. H. Garrett, Miss Stella Garrett, Miss Josephine Garrett, St. Louis; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Helburn, Salem; Mrs. Harriet Gale Henry, Philadelphia; Mrs. L. C. Jewey, New Orleans; Robert J. Johnson, Anna L. Johnson, Margurite Johnson, Master Allan Johnson, Mrs. J. H. Johnson, Brooklyn; Mrs. Kline, Miss Kline, Washington; Geo. S. Killins, Cleveland; Mrs. Morris Ketcham, Master Ketcham, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest P. Lowe, Master Albert N. Lowe, Fitchburg; Mrs. Harvey Madison, Washington; Henry Ridgeway Macy, Mary Macy, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Mitchell, Philadelphia; Mrs. William A. Martin, Miss Martin, Garden City, L. I., New York; Miss E. C. Manley, Arundel Holmes Nicholls, Mrs. H. G. Smith, New York; Miss Stranahan, Mrs. R. A. Stranaham, Brookline; Mr. and Mrs M. B. Streeter, Brooklyn; E. T. Saeger, Dorchester; Emile Schnellock, New York City; Miss Margaret Skinner, Allentown, Pa.; Miss Rennette Saeger, Mrs. H. J. Saeger, Boston; D. B. Stout, Swampscott; Mr. and Mrs. Jordan Stabler, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Richard K. Tyler, Miss M. A. Thompson, M. Elizabeth Thompson, Mrs. Ross, Washington; Franklin R. Tischendorff, New York; Henry Thornton, Boston; Mrs Richard Weightman, Washington; Mrs. Robert Withers, daughter and maid, Richmond; Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Walworth, Chicago.

J. Sloat Fassett, former member of the House of Representatives, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Congress from the thirty-seventh New York district. Mr. Fassett was defeated by E. S. Underhill, the incumbent, in 1910.

Mr. Fassett's summer residence is at Bass Rocks.

Recent cottage arrivals at Bass Rocks are Mr. and Mrs. Roland H. Sherman and daughter, Miss Julia Sherman of Winchester.

Mrs. E. Bradley Currier of New York has been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. William T. Floyd of Williamstown, at the Currier estate, Page street.

The Surfside Auto Inn

As its merits become more widely known the Surfside is attracting a constantly increasing patronage. The demand from Friday to Monday has been beyond the capacity from the start and last week more insistent than ever. In addition the place is in favor for holding of large banquets, several having been carded during the week. It looks as if the new Surfside would "come" in the initial season of the present management.

Harry Bernstein and family of Boston are registered at the Surfside for the season. Their cousin Miss Eva Vitkin is with them.

F. H. Lowell of Boston has also taken accommodations at the Surfside for an indefinite stay.

A party from Poughkeepsie, N. Y., who are motoring New England made a stay during the week at the Surfside included Mrs. Charles Tremaine, Mrs. Augustus Tremaine and Miss Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hance, Jacob and Dick of Syracuse, who are motoring New England made the Surfside their week end headquarters.

A Brookline party who motored down the shore with the Surfside as their objective, were Mrs. S. S. Shepherd, Miss E. S. Cabot of Brookline and Miss L. M. Thurber of Wellesley.

Mr. and Mrs. Seymour F. Scott of New York, Mr. Scott being cashier of the Hotel Plaza, spent a week at the Surfside.

A Newton party included George E. Stewart, Miss E. E. Walker, Miss Boothby, Miss Plumer, Miss Norton, and Miss Bent, were motorists who enjoyed the hospitality of the Surfside during the week.

money required has been obtained and the club starts on a firm financial foundation.

The Misses Mary and Julia Grinnell of Providence, have returned to Pigeon Cove for the season and are staying at the Ocean View.

Mrs. George E. Taintor and daughter, Miss Lucy S. Taintor, of Hartford, are making a July stay at the Ocean View.

Mrs. J. J. Foster, E. Hilda Foster and Beatrice Foster, are a Pittsfield party who are making a stay at the Ocean View.

Miss F. A. Walleck of New York, is at the Ocean View for a prolonged stay.

Mrs. Clarence A. Bunker. and daughter, Miriam Hawthorne Bunker, of Wellesley Hills, and Mrs. Bunker's mother, Mrs. George B. White, are at the Ocean View for July.

The Misses E. A. and Ellen A. Waite of Hatfield, have taken accommodations at the Ocean View for the season.

Miss M. H. Montgomery, Miss M. B. Montgomery, Miss S. E. Townsend and Miss M. Slaw of Overbrook, Penn., are making a stay into August at the Ocean View.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bradley of Commonwealth avenue, Boston, who came to the Ocean View July 1, will stay the rest of the month. Mr. Bradley, when a college student, served as clerk at the Ocean View 30 years ago under Mrs. Lougee, a former proprietor.

Mrs. Henry S. Wills and daughter, Juliette, and Miss Grace C. Murphy of Albany, are making a July stay at the Ocean View.

Mrs. A. S. Leseritz and daughter, R. E. Leseritz, of Rochester, N. Y., are making a stay at the Ocean View.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Wadsworth and daughter, Miss Wadsworth, are Toronto people making a stay at the Ocean View.

Mr. William A. Heptig, a well known young stock broker of Boston, a former clerk at the Ocean View and Beachcroft, is recuperating at the Ocean View.

Mr. Otto Leutz, Jr., teacher of drawing in the Mechanical Arts High school, Boston, is officiating this season at the Ocean View.

Mrs. C. R. Sturtevant of Worcester, who came to the Ocean View earlier in the season from Poland Springs, returned this week for a prolonged stay.

Mrs. Louis Wilson, owner of Hotel Edward, arrived this week from her winter home in Pittsburg, Pa.

Entertainments this week at the Ocean View have been as follows: Wednesday, Washington A. Coles, the blind humorist; Friday evening, the Walsh trio, and tonight, Wilson, the magician; tomorrow, Sunday, the blind musicians in a concert program.

The past week has been a very busy one at The Edward, numerous parties have motored down the Shore with The Edward as their objective.

The regular orchestra plays afternoons and evenings. A feature Saturday nights will be, a table d'hote dinner in the grill room with dancing afterwards.

The afternoon teas on the piazza are quite a feature, the beautiful view being admired by the patrons of the hostelry.

A party of business men made The Edward headquarters during the week, enjoying themselves immensely. They have engaged accommodations for a return stay. AUTOMOBILISTS, ATTENTION!

The attention of all automobilists is called to the following provisions of the Revised Laws of Massachusetts Relative to Motor Vehicle Laws, Acts of 1909, Chap. 534, Section 14:

SECTION 14. Every person operating a motor vehicle shall bring the vehicle and the motor propelling it immediately to a stop when approaching a horse or other draft animal being led, ridden or driven, if such animal appears to be frightened and if the person in charge thereof shall signal so to do; and, if travelling in the opposite direction to that in which such animal is proceeding, said vehicle shall remain stationary so long as may be reasonable to allow such horse or animal to pass; or, if travelling in the same direction, the person operating shall use reasonable caution in thereafter passing such horse or other animal. In approaching or passing a car of a street railway which has been stopped to allow passengers to alight or embark, the operator of every motor vehicle shall slow down and if it be necessary for the safety of the public he shall bring said vehicle to a full stop. Upon approaching a pedestrian who is upon the travelled part of any way and not upon a sidewalk, or where the operator's view is obstructed either upon approaching an intersecting way or a curve or corner in a way, every person operating a motor vehicle shall slow down and give a timely signal with his bell, horn or other device for signalling:

Provided, that in the thickly settled parts of a city or town no bell, horn or other device for signalling shall be sounded so as to make a harsh objectionable or unreasonable noise, except in the case of fire and police department vehicles and ambulances; and provided, further, that no operator of any motor vehicle shall at any time permit any unreasonable amount of smoke to escape from said motor vehicle, nor shall said operator at any time permit said motor vehicle to make any unnecessary noise, by cutting out the muffler, or otherwise.

The driver of any motor vehicle on any highway approaching a crossing of ways, shall slow down and keep to the right of the intersection of the centres of both ways, when turning to the right, and shall pass to the right of the intersection of the centres of said ways before turning to the left.

Per Order, CHARLES S. MARCHANT, City Marshal.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potter of Chestnut Hill, Phil. and daughter, Mrs. Dorothy, and baby, have returned for another season at the Oceanside. The marriage of their son, C. H. Potter, Jr., Princeton, '13, occurred June 27 and it is expected that after the honeymoon they will join their parents for the summer.

Miss Marion Smith of Somerville, Smith '17, was the guest of her classmate, Miss Marion Dakin, at her mother's cottage on Fuller street, during the week.

Mrs. G. L. Buckley and son, B. L. Buckley, of New York, have arrived at the Aborn for their fifth season.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. White of Boston, and daughter, Madeline, and Master Reginald, were among last week's arrivals at the Ocanside. They are in the Center cottage.

Mrs. Robert B. Williams and family of Roxbury, opened their cottage on Magnolia Heights last week. They were at Duxbury last year.

Rev. F. J. Libby, former pastor of the Congregational church, now professor of mathematics in Phillips-Exeter, has taken personal direction of the Men's club this season.

Mrs. Eaton, wife of Rev. Dr. Walter L. Eaton, pastor of the Congregational church, has charge of the library this year.

Miss Harriet Dumane, a miss of 15, is one of the strong swimmers of the summer colony. Accompanied by the swimming instructor she swam from Kettle island to the main land last week Tuesday. Her sister, Betty, accomplished this feat two summers ago.

The Rockport Shore

Arrivals at the Granite Shore: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thompson, Miss Lillian Thompson, Malden; Mrs. Brine, Master Brine, Dorchester; Miss Florence, Miss Cassie Brown, Miss Marion Stewart, Misses Grace and Mabel Stewart, Medford; Miss Gertrude S. Tankard, Springfield; Mrs. Edna Wiyn, Mrs. A. Abele, Malden; Mr. Ralph Painten, Wollaston; Miss Virginia Tanner, Dorchester.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hichborn of Augusta, Me., who are making a tour of New York and New England, are among the weeks' arrivals.

Mrs. Roy Garland and little son of Gloucester, made a stay during the week at The Edward, being joined later by Dr. Garland.

East Gloucester

The Golf handicap competition Saturday was won by Sidney Farnsworth. Mrs. Tuttle, of the Moorland, gave a card and bridge party of three tables and entertained 15 at tea, Wednesday. Thursday evening, Mrs. Lee Thom, who is occupying the Jarvie cottage, entertained at cards four tables with 21 at tea afterwards. A woman's tennis tournament has been in progress during the week.

The Tango Dansants given at the Hawthorne Inn Casino by G. Percival Chick, Ethyl T. Chick and Val R. Chick, are proving very successful. The music is said to be the best in this part of the country for the modern style of dancing.

Last Monday evening a party of society people came down from Lynn, others from Eastern Point, and another party from Riverview.

There is probably no place on the North Shore where dancing can be as enjoyable as at Hawthorne Inn Casino, because of the fact that it is located near the harbor and that it has a large piazza extending along one side on which the dancers can promenade between dances.

Invitations can be had by addressing Val R. Chick, 3 Eastern Point Road, Gloucester.

The Annisquam Riverside

The Wolf Hill section along the Squam river was the first section preempted for a summer resort. Just after the Civil War a number of Gloucester families used both banks of the River as a camping ground, tents first being used, followed by the erection of modest cottages. In the following list are names of some of the sons and grandsons of these pioneer summer settlers. Can anyone tell just why Wolf Hill was so named? The shape of the hill itself bears no resemblance to this predatory animal.

Capt. Sylvanus Smith, the Nestor of the fisheries is, as has been his custom for years, spending the season at his Riverview cottage. His son, Sylvanus Smith, Jr. and family, are with him.

Justin W. Wharf and family of Brooklyn, have again taken the Farmer cottage, which they are occupying for the reason.

Robert H. Treadwell and family of Somerville, are occupying their cottage at Riverview this season.

Sullivan A. Sargent and family of Brookline, have the Crowe cottage.

William L. Hammond and family of Somerville, are former cottagers who have returned for the season.

Frank F. Smith and family of Gloucester, are among the Wolf Hill cottagers who are established in their summer home.

George H. Hudson and family of Winter Hill, who were here last year, have taken a cottage at Wolf Hill for the season.

Alfred E. Smith and family of Somerville, are at their Riverview summer home.

Mrs. J. E. Garland and family, formerly of this city, now of Winchester, are at their Riverview cottage.

Mrs. Frances Chamberlain and family of Cambridge, are old cottagers here, returning to their summer home.

Ernest F. Blatchford and family of Gloucester, are occupying their Riverview cottage.

R. Russell Smith and family are among the new comers to this section. They have one of the new Norwood cottages at Thurston's point.

Harry G. Pew and family of Gloucester, are again at "Rockledge," their Riverview cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmot A. Reed of Gloucester, are established for another season at their Wolf Hill cottage.

Making Plans Ahead

"WE are just ready to start in the auto for New York—we shall pick up Jennie and Ned in about an hour—O yes—I have just talked with them, and it's all right. We want you to join our party at dinner at the Melford Hotel—will you? You will?—that's fine!—be on the lookout for us—it will take about two hours to run over.

"By-the-way, will you please telephone to the Porters in Hartford that we shall dine with them to-night, barring accidents. We'll see you soon—good-bye."

There is no charge on a toll call if you don't get the person asked for
